The Society's aim is to study and record the industrial history and artefacts of Cambridgeshire. It is affiliated to the Association of Industrial Archaeology (AIA), and is one of the founder members of the East of England Industrial Archaeology Conference (EERIAC). The Society also commissions and publishes occasional Monographs on Cambridge industrial subjects written by its members. Meetings, visits and conferences are open to everyone with an interest in industrial history.

Meetings are normally held on the second Monday of the winter months at the Friends' Meeting House, Jesus Lane, Cambridge CB5 6BA, at 7.45 p.m. + visits in summer.

Subscriptions currently £10.00 yearly (October 1 – September 30):

visitors £2.00 each meeting.

EERIAC

The East of England Regional Archaeology Conferences are fairly informal affairs, and all are welcome, even if not members of CIAS. The usual format is for talks in the morning, followed by a tour round local site of interest. EERIAC 2011 is due to be held in Norfolk, probably on the second Saturday in June – information will be sent to members when available.
