

UNIVERSITY OF THE THIRD AGE IN CAMBRIDGESHIRE

27-28 Bridge Street, Cambridge - 01223 321587

There are several U3A groups in Cambridgeshire, below is a list of several of them.

The U3AC has about 300 activities on offer, ranging from history to discussion groups, in fact any subject that interests members and for which they are willing to act as tutors. Classes are held either at the Bridge Street premises or in venues around the city. As most activities take place during the day, most members are no longer in full-time employment.

The main aim of U3AC is to help members spend their 'third age' in pursuit of new and old interests, to meet like-minded people and to keep this self-help organisation flourishing and growing. It costs £55 per year to become a member of U3AC with a one-off enrolment fee of £5 and extra fees for a small number of classes.

Look on the web site www.u3ac.org.uk for up-to-date information about the courses, just click on the link to the 2010-2011 brochure.

You can telephone or visit the office (10-2 Monday to Friday) and ask for a Membership pack which includes the Programme of Studies for 2010 to 2011.
