More Benefits

Monthly Lectures

Our monthly lecture programme runs from October to May by local experts, well known speakers on a wide range of fascinating and informative local topics. Individual and joint members do not pay to attend, corporate members pay £1 per talk and non-members pay £2.50 per talk.

The Spring Conference is a very popular, annual CALH event designed around specific Cambridgeshire themes. Members pay a reduced rate to participate.

The Annual Awards Ceremony.

This event features a notable and unmissable keynote speaker. Authors who have made a significant contribution to local, social or family history in the County are honoured by awards given out by our President.

The AGM is a brief but important, annual event where members have their say, where officers are elected and where nominations are welcome. Light refreshments are free to all.
